

Web Embroidery List (WEL) Number 4

The DMC threads website has a section of free patterns which you might like : <https://www.dmc.com/uk/free-patterns-5041/>

I know you will already be looking at the ANZEG website but I just thought I would draw your attention to this page <https://www.embroiderynz.co.nz/contact> of contact information with individual groups around the country. Many of the groups have websites with galleries like ours, which are interesting to look at. Their website address is given on this page, and others have Facebook links for those of you on Facebook.

Mary Corbet's Needle'n Thread website

<https://www.needlenthread.com/videos>

has short "how to" videos for lots of different embroidery stitches.

Ann McBeth

This is a short slide show of the works of Ann McBeth, one of the "Glasgow girls". https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=2UVU05_yI3U You can find out more about her life here

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Ann_Macbeth

Kate Wells is a contemporary embroiderer. This article is an interview with her about her work

<https://www.textileartist.org/kate-wells-fragments-splendour>

This site is a map of Pakistan and India showing textiles and embroidery techniques which different regions specialise in.

<https://mymodernmet.com/pakistan-india-embroidery-map/>